Coffee Morning 8th May 2015

It was lovely to catch up with parents at the Coffee Morning, Kamla Tirvengadam our Education Welfare Officer was there to answer any questions parents had.

The topic of conversation revolved round the Highshore election. Parents were genuinely interested in the result and the process and apparently the children had been talking about it constantly at home.

It was also nice to welcome three new parents to the event I hope they enjoyed it and found it interesting and will come again.

The Coffee Mornings are very informal and people may come in and out as they please as I know you all have busy schedules, I look forward to the next one. Enjoy half-term.

Dear Parents and Carers,

There are a lot of things happening next week. We do hope that you will join us on Tuesday 19th at 3-15 for E Safety training. Mike Barrett our Head of ICT and our E Safety lead will lead the training. Many of our young people are Facebook/ I phone / internet users and it is important to get the best possible advice re their safety. On Thursday Cat Rolley our work experience coordinator is taking a group of young people to Borough Market where we have a stall for the day. Do pop along between 11-2pm if you are in the area. Also on Thursday is our next film club. We are showing Madagascar 3. Film club has been very well attended since we started it in January with around forty pupils staying for each show.

Two sixth form groups, 12J and 12T are taking part in a residential between Wednesday and Friday next week at Kingswood organised by Julia Manning. The programme looks very busy! Some of the costs of this residential have been paid by the students own earnings in their enterprise education sales. Currently 12J sell pizza at break times on Fridays and 12T are selling renovated furniture.

We break up next Friday 22nd May for half term.
