Friendship Fortnight

Some great suggestions from the council

Things that should be included within Friendship Fortnight:

- A singsong. There should be NEW songs
- John, Ibi, Victor, Aisla, Tunje and Jose from Sixth Form volunteered to be Playground Friends
- A special certificate for the Class of the Week for the best friendship skills
- Friendship cards. A “thank you for being my friend” which will be delivered by the post team
- Friendship wristbands and badges
- Special assemblies. Students to talk in film clips. School Council to put together soundbites: “I know Highshore is a friendly school because”
Almost all the School Council volunteered for the special assembly .

What pupils should be doing during Friendship Fortnight

- Be nice and no fighting
- Sport is important for bringing people together
 - Don't argue when playing football. Students requested some football coaching
 - Table tennis & more organised games
- Books

- Read about friendship
- A display of books about friendship

The pupils felt the following makes a friendly School

- A friendly school for new pupils and making new friends
- Not being selfish and helping each other
- Playing with people who seem lonely
- People in class talking to each other
- Importance of not bullying other pupils. A discussion took place about not being nasty when using social media

The School Council members should talk to their class about our discussion.

Minutes will be distributed.
