

Class 11M - Summer Term Curriculum Overview

This term pupils will be staying with their class teachers who will deliver a variety of subjects and topics as part of our Recovery Curriculum.

Subject	Topic
Literacy	For the book 'Great Expectations' by Charles Dickens which we are reading as a class, focus on comprehension, quotations, character mapping, context, creating atmosphere, knowledge of author, word activities, sequencing, sentence and paragraph writing/punctuation and drama. Weekly spelling tests with words taken from Great Expectations.
Numeracy	IXL, Mathletics, Measure (including measuring angles and weight/using measuring scales), Shape and Space, Symmetry, Number (including positive/negative numbers), Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, Algebra, Money, Coordinates, Time, Direction (north, south, east and west), Pattern, Age, Odd, even numbers, Temperature, Measuring data in graphs, Puzzle work, Maths related games (including Sudoku/mazes).
Computing	Pearson Edexcel Functional Skills – Entry 1/2/3.
Science	The solar system and future space exploration.
Project	The Seven Continents of the World: For Africa, Antarctica, Asia, Australasia, Europe, North America and South America focussing upon Environment, People, Music, Culture & Nature.
Enrichment activities	Personal and research activities including laptop time, word search and calming self-expression activities.
Art & Craft	Allowing the young people to express themselves individually through art.
PSHE	Human Rights issues throughout history concerning people whose actions have made a positive impact on human society.
Past Events	Past events that have taken place throughout history from which human society have learnt and developed from such as the occurrence of Work Houses and Crime and Punishment throughout history.
Life skills	Independent skills such as snack and team building. Personal interests and ambitions, careers advice and types of careers.
PE/Fitness	The class engage in a range of fitness and team building activities with Raph, the school's Sports Coach. Students will focus on their individual targets. Continuing with theory; the learning and understanding of different muscle groups and the human skeleton and healthy eating. Playing different sports and using the fitness equipment in the fitness suite.

Class 11M - Summer Term Curriculum Overview

This term pupils will be staying with their class teachers who will deliver a variety of subjects and topics as part of our Recovery Curriculum.

Humanities	Students will study this term a history module 'The Cold War.' Students will gain knowledge and understanding of what the 'Cold War' was about; clash of ideologies and political beliefs, mistrust and misunderstanding of others and conflicts, the 'Cold War' hotspots, across the world from 1945 – 1990.