

7L Maths

This term in Maths, students will be introduced to the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on addition and subtraction and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

7L Literacy- Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text the Gruffalo.

Students will write a fictional story as their focus text. They will develop descriptive writing skills.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

7G Maths

This term in Maths, students will be introduced to the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on addition and subtraction and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

7G Literacy – Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text the Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe.

Students will write fictional story as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

7J Maths

This term in Maths, students will be introduced to the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on addition and subtraction and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

7J Literacy- Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text the Gruffalo.

Students will write a fictional story as their focus text. They will develop descriptive writing skills.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

Year 7

Literacy

and

Maths

8J Literacy- Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text 'Grimm Tales' by Philip Pullman

Students will write an Introductions to Fairy Tales as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

8R Literacy- Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text 'Meg and Mog' through practical and sensory activities, as well as writing.

Students will write a narrative (story) as their focus text. For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

9A Literacy- Back to School

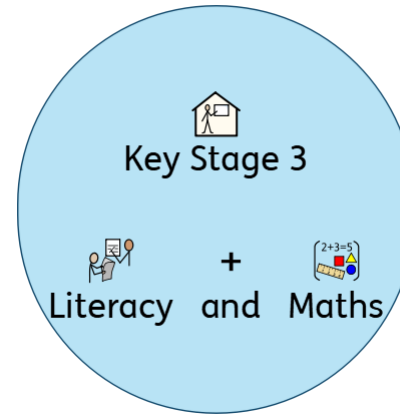

In Literacy this term students in 9A will explore the text 'Baddies' by Julia Donaldson. Students will write a narrative as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

9L Literacy- Back to School

In Literacy this term students will explore the text The Last Wolf by Mini Grey. Students will write a narrative as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

8R Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

8J Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

9A Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

9L Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

10R Literacy – Best friends

In Literacy this term students will explore the text "A Letter to Amy." Students will write letters as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

10RM Literacy – Best friends

In Literacy this term students will explore the text "The Sheep Pig" by Dick King Smith.

Students will write Newspaper articles as their focus text. For reading, some students will focus on their comprehension skills, using Colourful Semantics, and some students will focus on their word-reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

10R Maths

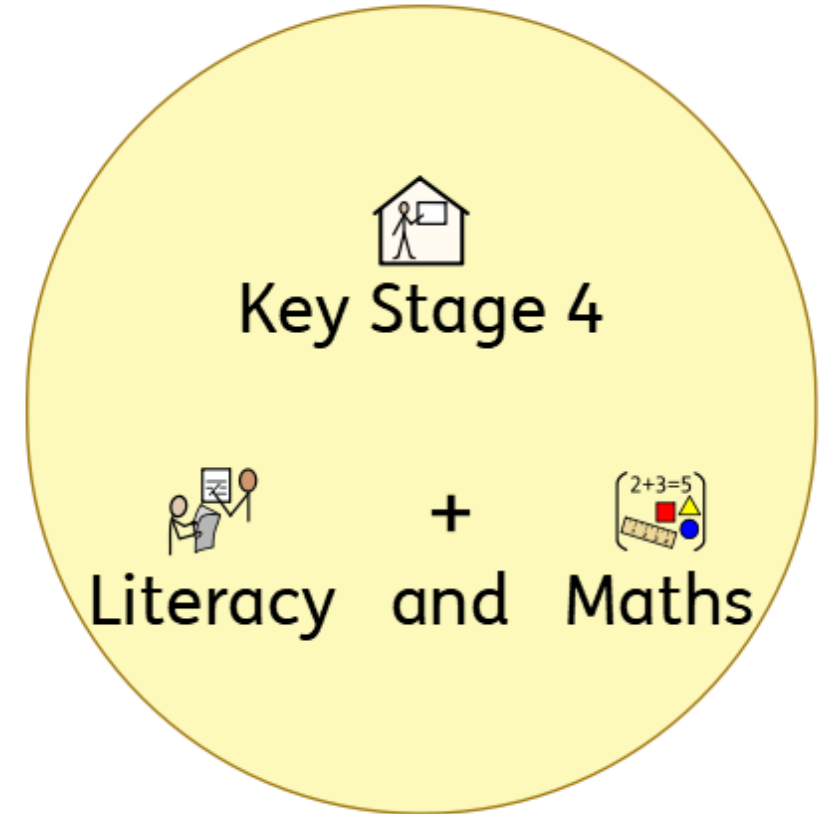

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

10RM Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

11C Literacy – Best friends

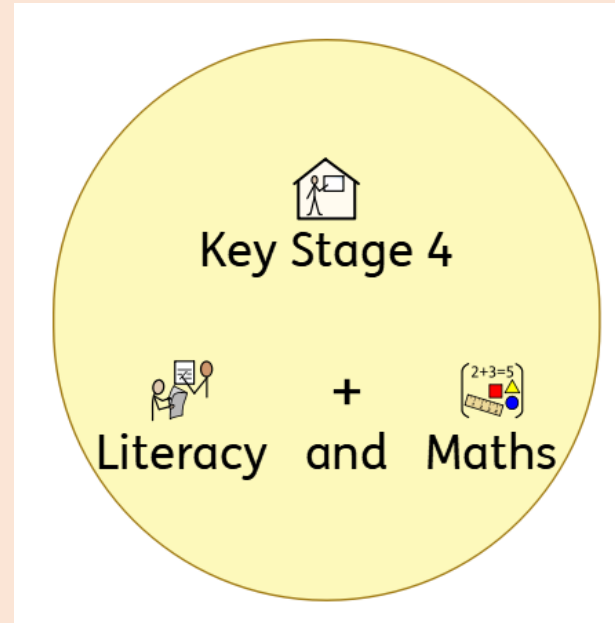

In Literacy this term students will explore the text "A Dangerous Game" by Malorie Blackman.

Students will write Newspaper articles as their focus text. For reading, some students will focus on their comprehension skills, using Colourful Semantics, and some students will focus on their word-reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

Y11 Literacy – Best friends

In Literacy this term students will explore the text Oliver's Vegetables by Vivian French. Students will write using the words and illustrations from Oliver's Vegetables as their focus text to develop their ability to form letters and words, and for the more able to answer comprehension questions based on the text.

For reading, students will focus on comprehension of texts selected for their individual ability level and sight word reading with particular special interests.

Y11 Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

11C Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

12C Literacy – That's not fair

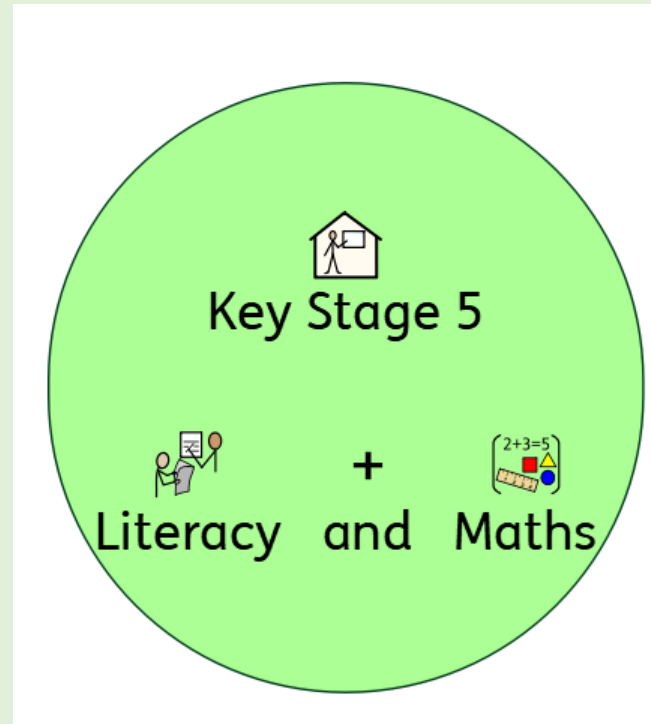

In Literacy this term students will explore the text 'Billy Goats Gruff'. Students will write a persuasive letter as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

12L Literacy – That's not fair

In Literacy this term students will explore a variety of persuasive texts. Students will then write a persuasive text of their own.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

12C Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).

12L Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

13K Literacy – that's not fair

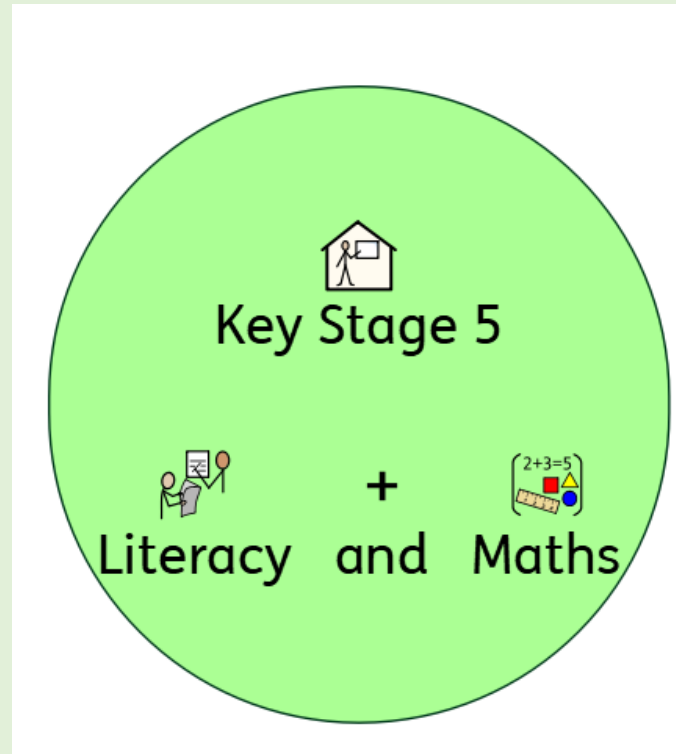

In Literacy this term students will explore a variety of persuasive texts. Students will then write a persuasive text of their own.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

13L Literacy – that's not fair

In Literacy this term students will explore various non-fiction articles. Students will write a persuasive letter as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

13K Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

13L Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

14R Literacy – That's not fair

In Literacy this term students will explore the text The Day The Crayons Quit.

Students will write a persuasion letter as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

14S Literacy – That's not fair

In Literacy this term students will explore various non-fiction articles. Students will write a persuasive letter as their focus text.

For reading, the majority of students will focus on their reading skills either through RWI Phonics or Sight word reading.

14R Maths

This term in Maths, students will continue to work towards the skills required to undertake their particular accreditation pathway, e.g, Entry Level 1, 2 or 3.

14S Maths

This term in Maths, students will be following the Power Maths structure to develop Maths Mastery.

They will focus on Number and Place Value and Measures (e.g, Shape, positioning, length etc).